

COLLEGIATE SUMMER BASEBALL CLUB

LOOKING FOR HOST FAMILIES

For college baseball players
Summer of 2022

Since 2005 top college baseball players have traveled from all over the country to Northern Colorado to play with the Fort Collins Foxes in summer wood-bat baseball competition. These top college players hone their skills and are seen by Major League scouts. The Foxes won the league championship in 2005, 2007, 2012, and 2019. Over twenty Foxes players have gone on to play professional baseball, including current Major League catcher Stephen Vogt! These players need local families to host their stay here!

The hosting experience is a lot of fun! The players are extremely polite and are enjoyable to have around, especially if you have kids. They arrive around June 1 and depart after July 24. All they need is a bedroom, a bathroom, and as many meals as you're willing to feed them! Most have their own cars (or they hitch a ride from a fellow player), and are in and out a lot due to practice, games, and work schedules (some of the players will have summer jobs).

Please consider having a talented and genuinely grateful college ball player (or two) in your home this summer. If you do, you'll have the best summer of your life, especially if you and your family love the game of baseball!

If you're interested in hosting a player(s), please contact Foxes owner, Kurt Colicchio at kurt@fortcollinsfoxes.com.

For more info on the Foxes, please visit www.fortcollinsfoxes.com